

Rituparna has a master degree in Comparative Literature from Jadavpur University. She has completed her Diploma in HR management from Symbiosis Distance Learning. She has varied experience in HR, administration and media handling. She had started her career as a journalist in Kolkata and gradually shifted to HR (Training & Event Planning). After working in the corporate sector for many years she wanted to explore the Development world and gain experience at the grassroots level.

Rituparna is joined Sa-Dhan in 2019 and since then handling media and communications. She is also a part of the Financial Literacy project team.