1. Mission Statement

To promote and foster inclusive impact finance institutions to support low income households, particularly women, to achieve stable livelihoods, improve their social and financial wellbeing and quality of life and fulfill Sustainable Development Goals.

Sa–Dhan is registered under the Societies Act of 1860. The association started functioning since latter part of 1998 and finally was registered in the middle of 1999.

2. Core Objectives

- Providing a common platform for advocacy representing multiple models and approaches to micro finance in India.
- Making available timely and reliable information that is crucial for effective networking of micro finance institutions across India.
- Undertaking research, development of tools and resources that facilitate dialogue and synergy of best practice between different operating models and stakeholders.
- Making available a bouquet of initiatives that inform, educate and articulate the needs of the sector. These programs include service providers, policy makers and bankers involved in microfinance.
- Maintaining the attention of the members and other stakeholders on the need of strengthening the availability and support for technical and marketing support systems for sustainable livelihoods through community development finance.

3. Three Pronged Approach to build the sector

- Facilitate dialogue and synergy between different stakeholders for improving the operating environment. (reducing the legal and operational constraints)
- Assist members in enhancing the management and monitoring quality of operations in such a manner that results in the establishment of common systems and benchmarks procedures (both financial and non-financial) for improved management and wider acceptance of the services in the mainstream banking and financial domain
- Build the perspective of all stakeholders for enriching the knowledge and capacity of microfinance practitioners.

4. Sa-Dhan Membership

1. Membership Categories: -

Four types of organisations can become members of Sa-Dhan:

Category A: Capacity Building Organisations (CBOs) such as PRADAN, who promote self-help groups and provide capacity building inputs, or, Technical Service Providers (TSPs) like EDA Rural systems, or Development Support Team, who provide technical support to NGO-MFIs.

Category B: Organisations not purely structured as financial intermediaries, but either provide micro-credit to groups/individuals such as ASA, or, provide bulk credit to MFIs for micro-credit e.g. Ananya Finance for Inclusive Growth Pvt. Ltd. and Rashtriya Gramin Vikas Nidhi (RGVN). Formal financial institutions such as banks that are providing loan to MFIs for onlending to the poor or through the Business Correspondent or Facilitator Model, investors shall also fall under this category.

Category C: Organisations purely structured as Microfinance Institutions such as SEWA Bank, Bhartiya Samruddhi Finance Ltd. (BASIX) etc that directly provide microfinance services to the poor. Or those working as Business Correspondent / Facilitator of the banks.

Category D: Formal or Informal Networks/Channels for both support and capacity building, such as WOTR, ARAVALI etc.
