Veneet J Kalloor Assistant Vice President SRO, Research & Data Analysis

Veneet holds a post-graduate degree in Rural Development & Electronics Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in power plant working as an operation engineer where he spent over two years in the operation & Engineering from Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Karnataka. He started his career in p